

Announcement of the inspection of Mary Wade Correctional Centre

The Inspector of Custodial Services will carry out an inspection of Mary Wade Correctional Centre (MWCC).

MWCC a minimum-security facility works release centre for men located in Lidcombe, 19 km west of the Sydney central business district. MWCC was opened in 2017 on the former site of Juniperina Juvenile Justice Centre and previously operated as a stand-alone remand facility for women.

Relevant standards, legislation, policies, and procedures will inform the inspection, with the following focus areas:

- Custody
- Care and wellbeing
- Programs, employment and education
- Resources and systems

The Inspector of Custodial Services may consider any other matters relevant to this inspection.